

SWEDISH POST-WAR PREFABRICATED HOUSES

UK LOCATION LISTS

Updated 3/9/2024

Compiled by R. Neil Midgley using information supplied via the Prefab Museum (prefabmuseum@gmail.com)

All those listed are believed to be still standing unless otherwise stated in the 'Notes'

ENGLAND and WALES

- A Swedish Type A Pairs of semi-detached houses with ground floor utility extensions ('wash house', coal, WC, store)
D Swedish Type D Pairs of semi-detached dormer bungalows with ground floor utility extensions ('wash house', coal, WC, store)
(It is believed that Swedish Types B and C were only erected in Scotland – see separate location list below that for England and Wales)

Footnotes to Listings

Place names in the alphabetical listings are to be found in the widely available AA Road Atlas, 'Great Britain and Ireland', except where stated and indicated*.

Metropolitan Borough or District Council names are used where applicable, e.g. – Leeds, Bradford, Wakefield, Calderdale or Kirklees rather than West Yorkshire.

Postcodes are for one of the properties, enough to find the location but not all will have the same code. In rural areas the same postcode may cover a large area.

Ordnance Survey Grid References are for one of the properties, enough to find the location but not all will have the same reference.
